

Dorham, Dec. 10. 1887.

My Dear Friend,

I enclose a letter of Mr. May's to me, as it explains itself better than I could do with a good deal less trouble to myself.
You want to know, you will see, whether you remember that Mr. Parkers for years before his death thought that the money paid for keeping up the Standard was an unjudicious appropriation of A. S. funds?
I remember it distinctly, & it was mainly through Garrison's strong and certainly disinterested support of the Standard that his objections of Hovey's were overcome.

As you said some in N. Y. it is not of vital importance that all of the $10,000 should go to the Freedmen, instead of half; but it better it should, & as the decision of its direction is the very thing left to the consideration of the trustees, we are bound to represent the case according to our views to the Rector in Chancery who is to pass upon the matter. The opinion of Mr. Jackson as to the expediency of keeping up the Standard when Slavery was fall of life, might materially affert. The Master's decision if he should award it all to the Freedmen it would be a most timely assistance to that movement.

I returned home in safety on Friday after a delightful week in N. Y., my only regret being that I saw so little of yourself. With kindest regards to Henry & his wife, I am, ever faithfully yours,

Edmund Quincy.
